CIVIL ACTION

FILE NO.

1:15-CV-3199

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

The above and foregoing Verified Emergency Motion for Temporary Restraining Order (the "Motion") having been read and considered, and the same having prayed for a temporary restraining order to be issued to Defendant, and having alleged that immediate and irreparable injury will result to the Plaintiff if such restraining order is not issued, and the attorney for Plaintiff having certified as to his efforts to give such notice, and it appearing to the Court that a proper case has been made out for a temporary restraining order, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. That a temporary restraining order is hereby issued to Defendants, enjoining Defendants and their agents and restraining them from:
 - a. Conversion by means of sending Plaintiff's clients, sponsors, and vendors communications or invoices and redirecting payment to Defendants;
 - b. Violating O.C.G.A. 10-1-760 et. seq. by means of e-mailing or otherwise contacting Plaintiff's confidential list of clients, sponsors, and vendors for the purpose of redirecting them to or confirming they are registered for Defendant's events; and

- c. Tortiously interfering with Plaintiff's business relations by means of contacting Plaintiff's clients, sponsors, and vendors with any communication that is defamatory toward or that makes direct or indirect mention or reference to the Plaintiff or any related parties for the malicious purpose of encouraging non-attendance at Plaintiff's events or breach of an existing contract.

2. That Defendant is so enjoined and restrained for a period of _____ days after entry of this ORDER, or until further order of the Court.
3. That the hearing on the Motion shall take place before Judge _____ of this Court on _____ at _____ in Courtroom No. _____, United States District Court, Northern District of Georgia.

SO ORDERED, this ____ day of _____ 2015.
